

13 Saudi Arabia

“I was prepared to die for Jesus. But what I didn’t know was that I would have to die to myself every day from then on.”

– Noora* from Saudi Arabia

Region	Arabian Peninsula
Christian population	4.1%
Main religion	Islam
Source of persecution	Islamic oppression

About Saudi Arabia

In this strict Islamic nation, it's forbidden to openly practise a faith other than Islam. Leaving Islam is punishable by death and Christians risk honour-killings or violent attacks from their families and community. Saudi converts, especially women, often keep their conversion secret—forced to go through the motions of Muslim beliefs while holding tight to Jesus in their hearts.

Ask God to strengthen this small but growing Church. Pray also for discernment as young converts use technology to share Jesus.

Our Work

Open Doors raises prayer support for the believers and the Church in Saudi Arabia.

www.opendoors.org.za/wwl

OpenDoors