About Sudan

Historically, Islam is deeply embedded in Sudan's society and the ruling elite aims to enforce an Islamic regime in the country. Christians face constant discrimination and pressure. Multiple church buildings were demolished, leaving some Christians without a place to worship. All Christian communities are afraid of talking about their faith with Sudanese Muslims due to the risk of arrest or intimidation.

Ask God to work in the hearts of Sudanese government leaders – convicting them to seek justice and peace through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Our Work

Through partnerships with the local Church, the scope of Open Doors work in Sudan includes various distribution projects and trainings, trauma ministry, and various community development projects.
