

Open Doors International is looking for a

STAKEHOLDER & EVENT COORDINATOR

50-60%

The Stakeholder & Event Coordinator will be the key player in building and establishing a coalition from across our global organisation to make one of our big events happen: a global conference to support our biggest campaigns in Africa. It will take place towards the end of 2026 and churches in Africa will be invited to participate.

Do you enjoy bringing people from multiple backgrounds together to support our vision that no Christian suffers persecution alone? Is “getting things done” and having meaningful impact what makes your day? You will not only build and maintain a coalition and plan the event, but you will also work closely with the wider campaign team as well: to report and inform on progress, identify and overcome setbacks, and implement solutions to stay on track. You will provide operational and tactical guidance to each stakeholder to help them achieve their coalition goals.

Open Doors is an international, interdenominational organization that supports Christians who are persecuted for their faith.

Open Doors International supports the worldwide organization by organizing Global Campaigns and with services such as Marketing, Communications, People & Culture, Advocacy, IT, Program Management, Finance and Global Research by working in a service-oriented way with teams and colleagues in countries with an Open Doors Development or Field office.

YOUR KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Scope out the right coalition partners and bring them together
- Coordinate, host and lead meetings of coalition partners
- Responsible to achieve multi-year commitments toward the conference and offer operational and tactical insight and direct guidance for each stakeholder on how to achieve their campaign goals
- Plan, align and deliver conference events, including MOU, content and budget
- Ensure that the goals of overall events are agreed, action orientated and achieved
- Coordinate and deliver various elements of the event, such as session plans, to ensure they harmonise seamlessly and deliver a cohesive experience.

YOUR PROFILE

- A committed Christian with a passion for the Persecuted Church
- Bachelor's degree in business or management

- Demonstrated experience in strategic, cross-cultural stakeholder management preferably in the INGO sector
- Experience in planning and executing large events
- A proactive and informed communicator and networker, highly relational and proven ability to motivate and bring others along
- A flexible, self-motivated and disciplined worker who is capable of working both independently and as part of a team
- Excellent written communication in clear English.

OUR OFFER

Working at Open Doors means that you are actively involved in serving the worldwide Persecuted Church. We offer you a versatile position in an international, dynamic environment, a professional team and the opportunity to grow professionally and personally. As a global organization we are used to combining working from home with working from the office and to have flexible working hours. Location preferably in the UK, NL or Africa. It is a salaried position with a fulltime gross monthly salary between € 3.052 and € 4.248, if stationed in NL. This role is initially until the end of 2026, but it is our intention it grows to a permanent position.
